FIRMIN (GILES), nonconformist divine, 1617–97.

A serious question stated: viz.: Whether the ministers of England are bound by the word of God to baptize the children of all such parents which say, they beleeve in Jesus Christ; but are grossly ignorant, scandalous in their conversations, scoffers at godliness, and refuse to submit to church-discipline? The negative (with submission to better judgments) is modestly defended ... 4° Lond. 1651.

A sober reply to the Sober answer of rev. Mr. Cawdrey, to A ferious question propounded ... Also, the question of reverend Mr. Hooker concerning the baptisme of infants, of parents non-confederate is cleared, and it may serve for an answer to Mr. Cawdrey's diatribe, with him upon the question. With a postscript to rev. Mr. Blake.

4° Lond. 1653.

Presbyterial ordination vindicated. In a brief and fober discourse concerning episcopacy, as claiming greater power, and more eminent offices by divine right, then presbyterie. The arguments of the reverend bishop Dr. Davenant in his Determination for such episcopacy are modestly examined. And arguments for the validity of presbyterial ordination added. With a brief discourse concerning imposed forms of prayer, and ceremonies.

* An answer to a treatise out of ecclesiastical history, translated from an ancient Greek manuscript in the public library at Oxford, by Humphrey Hody, B.D., &c., and published under the title of The unreasonableness of a separation from the new bishops, to shew, that although a bishop was unjustly deprived, neither he nor the Church ever made a separation, if the successor was not an heretick. To which is added, the canons in the Baroccian manuscript omitted by Mr. Hody. 8° Lond. 1691.

A letter from Mr. Humphry Hody, to a friend, concerning a collection of canons said to be deceitfully omitted in his edition of the Oxford treatise against schism. In which is likewise contained an offer of certain propositions to be prov'd by the advocates for the new separation. With a vindication of the authority of the civil power in depriving such bishops as refuse to submit to it. 4° Oxford, 1692.

* A farther account of the Baroccian manuscript, lately published at Oxford, together with the canons omitted in that edition. In a letter to his friend in London. [No title-page.] 4° n. p. n. d.
